

As a result of Governor Wolf's Emergency Order last night directing that all non-life sustaining business be closed, unfortunately we have had to close the office at this time.

We remain available to deal with any and all issues or emergencies by phone or email. Please contact us on our main office number 610-434-5441 and leave a message either for Attorney Abele Iacobelli (ext. 1) or Attorney Megan Michael (ext. 2). Please note, the general mailbox will not be monitored. All voicemail messages will come to both attorneys' via email and we will be able to return your call as soon as possible. Please be sure to leave your name and phone number in your message to ensure a prompt return call.

You may also contact us via email. Attorney Iacobelli's email is aiacobelli@wallitsch.com and Attorney Michael's email is mmichael@wallitsch.com. You may also send faxes to 610-434-7133 if you are unable to email any attachments. Please note that if you have faxed a document to our office, I would ask that you also either call and leave a message for the appropriate attorney or email that attorney to advise that a fax has been sent, so that we will be able to retrieve that fax remotely.

You should also be aware that all Pennsylvania courts remain closed to the public unless an absolute emergency. Which is strictly defined by the administrative order of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court and President Judge of each county. Accordingly, while Petitions may be filed, they will not be scheduled until court is reopened. At the present time, court is scheduled to reopen on April 6th however, this is a very fluid situation and that may change. Rest assured that we will keep you advised of any developments as they may occur.

Please stay healthy and we remain available to serve your needs.
